Awareness on Cyber Crime

On 7th February 2025, the Women Empowerment Cell of Government Degree College, Chintalapudi, in collaboration with the Eluru District Police Department, organized an awareness programme on Cyber Crime. The event aimed to educate students, especially young women, about various cyber threats and online scams.

The police officials elaborated on different cyber frauds, including honey traps, women trafficking, drug package scams, and the dangers of downloading unknown .apk files. They cautioned students against sharing OTPs and personal information with strangers, emphasizing that such actions could lead to identity theft and financial fraud. Additionally, the risks of morphing and cyber harassment were discussed, urging students to be vigilant while sharing photos and personal details online.

The toll-free helpline number 1930 was shared with students, encouraging them to report issues such as child marriages, eve-teasing, and cybercrimes.

The programme was presided over by Dr. P. Sreenivasa Rao, Principal, and NJK Narendra Kumar, Vice Principal, who appreciated the efforts of the Women Empowerment Cell and the Eluru District Police in spreading awareness. They advised students to stay informed and practice cyber safety in their daily lives.

The session was interactive, with students engaging in discussions and raising queries related to cyber security.
